WAIKIKI INN WILL CLOSE

Humphrey's Charge the Cause.

SO SAYS MANAGER ALMY

Others Think the Resort Has Been Losing Money and That the Last Straw.

Waikiki Inn is to close. Manager Henry Almy says that the charge to the Grand Jury by Judge Humphreys has put him out of business. He announces that after Friday the well-known beach resort will cease to entertain guests.

Almy says that the fear of arrest for selling liquor on Sunday has caused the Inn management to conclude to close. Others say that the Inn has not been on a paying basis for some time and that the assumed inability to sell drinks on Sunday in future is simply the pebble in the pitcher that makes it overflow.

Manager Almy yesterday said: "I have read the charge of Judge Humphreys to the grand jury in regard to the illicit selling of liquor at the Waikiki beach on Sunday. It may not be known by the community at large, but it is a fact, that when those licenses were granted at the Waikiki beach it was thoroughly understood that these places could not pay the sum of money required for a license, which amounts to about $100 a month, unless they were permitted to serve guests on Sunday. The Police Department acquiesced at that time, and since then the various resorts at the beach have been as orderly as possible and without any outside assistance or support from the police, as the proprietors have been able to keep a supervision over the conduct of people at their resorts and see that it was orderly."

"I have to-day, representing the gentlemen interested with me in the enterprise, visited Judge Humphreys in his office and asked him what our status was before the grand jury. He told me distinctly that if I were selling liquor on Sunday it was in violation of the law. Not wishing to place myself or any associates in the position of criminals, the Waikiki Inn will be closed on Friday."

"The fact is," said a hotel man yesterday, "that the Inn has been under too great expense to make a profit. The rent is very high and the prices charged guests have not been high enough. What with the liquor license of $1000 a year, the exorbitant rent and incidentals, the place would have to be patronized twice as well as it has been to show a balance on the right side. Doubtless some other person will see a chance to make money in the Inn but local restaurateurs will fight shy with the present rent."

The proprietors of the Hotel Annex are not worrying about the grand jury and say they will as heretofore sell liquor to bona fide guests on week days.

MISSIONARIES WHO WILL COME HERE

Woman's Board Will Entertain Workers From China.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Board of Missions took place yesterday afternoon at Central Union Church. There was a large attendance and the business of the meeting was of considerable importance to Christian workers.

The ladies decided to prepare an entertainment for any refugee missionaries from China who may be passengers aboard the Hongkong Maru which is expected on Saturday. They have received information that many of the missionaries preferred returning to their homes on the Mainland rather than burden the missionaries in Japan by their presence. A committee was appointed to make whatever preparations are necessary to give them a fitting welcome.

A relief sum of $50 was appropriated to assist those missionaries who may be in need of ready money, but at all events the amount will be used for their benefit. An appropriation of $25 for the relief of the famine stricken ones in India was made and the amount forwarded to the relief bureau in India.

A paper prepared by Mrs. Bishop on the life of the Rev. William Richards, one of the early missionary workers of Hawaii, was read. Miss Talcott reported on the Japanese missionary labors performed amongst the Japanese colony of Honolulu. She also gave some interesting items from a letter relating to some of the missionaries well known to Honolulu who were in China at the outbreak of the Boxer movement. Among these are Mr. Porter and his sister who are reported alive in Japan at present. Information was also given that there were forty others who had escaped and were now domiciled at Kobe school.

Mrs. B. F. Dillingham who recently returned from a long visit on the Mainland gave a brief account of the various missionary meetings she had visited while away, four of them being great events.

Mrs. C. M. Hyde presided at the meeting.

Cannibal Chief—What! A stew again? I've told you that I prefer a roast! Cook—Impossible, your majesty! Since tourists ride through Africa on bicycles it is hard to catch them, and when we do catch one he's all skin and bones!
